

Advanced Television Systems Committee

ATSC LETTER BALLOT
PS_101
" Advanced Common Application Platform (ACAP) "
5 July 2005

On May 30 the voting-eligible members of the ATSC Technology and Standards Group approved a ballot on TSGS2-006r9, "Advanced Common Application Platform (ACAP)." This second ACAP ballot was to approve substantive changes made in response to comments submitted during the first TSG ACAP ballot, which closed 24 November 2004. During the second ACAP ballot, comments were received and editorial changes were made in response. Details on the comment resolution work can be found on the Ballot Status page of the ATSC Members Web site: http://www.atscmembers.org/sg/Ballot/ballot\_status.html.

Please mark your vote and return this ballot form before the four-week deadline of 02 Aug 05.

Question 1: Shall PS-101, "Advanced Common Application Platform," be approved?

Yes       No       Abstain

Question 2: Shall the ATSC President, in consultation with the Chairman of TSG – Technology and Standards Group, be given "editorial privileges" on the approved document referenced above?

Yes       No       Abstain

Member Organization Eastman Kodak Company

Signature Arthur J. Cosgrove Date July 29, 2005

Editorial comments, or specific objections:

Eastman Kodak Company believes it may hold intellectual property relating to the release of this Standard.

We will and have previously indicated intent to license for Reasonable terms And in a Non Discriminatory manner (RAND)

Please return this ATSC Letter Ballot by 02 Aug 2005 to the ATSC via fax 202-872-9161 or <mailto:ballot@atsc.org>.